Agenda Item –3: To discuss shifting to Trimester system from Semester system, Internship policy and Project-based learning system for 2 existing and upcoming batches (2018, 19 & 20):

BoS members appreciated the proposed trimester, internship policy & project-based learning framework as providing a comprehensive model of education in which due emphasis would be given to research papers, moot court and project-based evaluation process. With the following findings and recommendations they suggested this adjustment for current and future students at ILSR:

1. This change is as per the 2008 BCI Education Rules and ILSR does not entail any regulatory danger in this trimester framework. Project-based learning Policy is enclosed as Annexure –A
1. Faculties should provide the students with good encouragement and mentoring for projects, moot court and research papers.
2. Providing all students with 2 compulsory and 1 optional internship per year would bring practical knowledge and law-learning to students. However, as per internship policy, this internship should be supervised accordingly. Internship Policy is enclosed as Annexure –B
